

Meet Dr. Stuart J. McCormick, DDS

Dr. McCormick has been practicing high quality dentistry on Madison's west side for over 30 years. Dr McCormick is a respected member of the community and is among the few who were selected as 2009 America's Top Dentists by the consumers' research council of America. Dr. McCormick is committed to exceeding expectations of all of his patients. He enjoys spending time getting to know each and every patient, building relationships that continue to grow both in a personal and professional manner.

Dr. Stuart J. McCormick was born and raised in Madison, Wisconsin. He graduated from West High School in 1974, where he played hockey, football, and baseball. After high school Dr. McCormick went on to Gustavus Adolphus College where he graduated with a double major in psychology and biology in 1978. He attended Marquette University School of Dentistry and received his DDS degree in 1983. Dr. McCormick is an active member of the Wisconsin Dental Study Club and the Madison Dental Progress Forum, which he was just awarded a plaque by his dental colleges for recognition of 25 years of service. These study clubs help to keep Dr. McCormick up to date with technology, materials, and techniques.

Dr. McCormick of West Madison Dental has taken many continuing education courses to keep his skills current and at the highest level of expertise. Dr. McCormick was the first dentist in Madison to be certified in sedation dentistry. For over 15 years, many anxious patients have been treated successfully. This is a wonderful treatment option for those who want the most non-stressful, fear free and relaxing dental experience possible.

Dr. McCormick is successfully certified in advanced cardiac life support and is certified by the America Academy of Facial Esthetics (AAFE) which allows him to offer Botox and Derma Fillers to enhance facial esthetics.

Lastly, Dr. McCormick enjoys spending his free time with family and friends and loves to golf.
